

Regent of Portugal Diamond

Contributed by Administrator
Monday, 29 October 2007

Regent of Portugal Diamond. A Brazilian stone, found in 1775, cut into a 215-carat round brilliant. It is thought to be a topaz, not a diamond. Additional details lacking.